The files are READ ONLY, so when you save them you will have to rename the file. The files are built so that the information can be added in the appropriate areas to complete the booklets.

PRINT OUT the Adobe Acrobat Document (pdf) files first to see how the document should look in your word processor. Some printer drivers will change the base ASCII font and/ or spacing. You may have to adjust the space, underscores and so on to get the text to line up. Please note the signature areas.
